Multipurpose Cleaning Gun

Selling Tips

1. Q: Will it damage my radiator?
A: No - a radiator in good condition will not be damaged however heater cores should only be flushed as part of the complete system.
2. Q: My electric high pressure cleaner has far greater pressure.
A: Yes, this is true, but the 70801 Gun has a far greater volume of water which is better for washing down floors, cars, etc.

Technical:

1. Uses a combination of air and water to perform high pressure/volume cleaning tasks
2. Can be converted to be used as an air blow gun only and also a vacuum gun using the optional vacuum accessory kit.

Marketing:

1. Simple effective means of flushing radiators and cooling systems
2. Can be used for a variety of wash down functions including:
 - * Brake drums
 - * Floor cleaning
 - * Car wash
3. Easily converts to a high flow air gun and vacuum gun
